BIO

With a weirdly familiar yet refreshingly uncharted sound, Felish's exploratory blend of indie, R&B, neo-soul, afrobeat, and shimmering echoes of '80s pop is intriguingly unique. Much like artists such as Maggie Rogers, Nao and Saya Gray, she fearlessly embraces a romantic, playful, and exploratory approach to pop — layering in distorted textures and raw grittiness that push the sound into a bold, emotional sonic spectrum.

I thought I needed to force and rush music for years, just to realize that, music doesn't leave me. -It is as natural as breathing and continues to be my favourite way of communicating.
